

I am happy with the "do not call" rule as is. FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. This law has improved our time at home. I very rarely receive a telemarketer call now. Before this law, we received them 10 or more times a day. Please allow us our privacy by keeping this law in full force. Thank you. Amy & Tom Herman